MILITARY LEAGUE.

SOME CLOSE GAMES WERE PLAYED

SERVICE MEN PUT

UP GOOD BALL

Both N. G. H. Teams Defeated—Fort Ruger Makes Good Showing—Cavalry Doing Well.

On Saturday afternoon the military league started up in earnest, and two games were played at the league grounds. There were few spectators, but those present made enough noise for three times their number. The first game was between the Shafter and Ruger, and the former team won out by the narrow margin of 3 to 2. The second game was put up by the Marines and N. G. H. First Regiment, and the half-wets won by a score of 4 to 1.

The Fort Ruger boys are to be congratulated on the showing they made at their first appearance in the league. They did very well, all things considered, and the way they piled up three runs in the first half of the ninth was a treat to see.

The Shafter are improving every day, and they should go close to winning the pennant. Considering that they were almost unable to come into the league on account of having no pitcher, they are very fortunate in landing that Holoun's arm is well enough to allow him to do such good work for them.

The first game was somewhat marred by an exhibition of bad temper that it is to be hoped will never occur again on a local diamond. The affair ended in blows being struck and a general mixup. That sort of thing should once and for all be stopped, and any player who thinks he is aggrieved should have other ways of settling matters than by scrapping on the diamond in front of the fans.

The Guards met their Waterloo at the hands of the Marines, and Barry's No. 2 Beasts were somewhat downcast over their defeat. Considering the nine that the Guards had on the diamond, it seemed as if they should have won, however, the half-wets did the trick in good shape and defeated their opponents 4 to 1.

On Sunday the original Barry's Beasts—or such of them as still stick to the team on Sundays—traveled to Lihoua, and there met defeat at the hands of the Fifty Cavalry. The margin was a close one, and the score of 5 to 4 shows how good a game it was.

Barry is handicapped a lot by the fact that some of his men play ball on Sundays with the Oahu league teams. Still, on Saturdays the sergeant will be able to get most of his old players out for the Beasts.

Next Saturday the N. G. H. play Fort Shafter, and the Marines will tackle the Hospital Corps. On Sunday the Cavalry and Fort Ruger will play, and on both days there should be some fine ball seen.

ASKS NEW TRIAL.

E. C. Peters, attorney for the defense, in the case of the Territory of Hawaii versus Lau Chong, has filed a motion for a new trial of the case.

On April 19 Chong was found guilty of assault with a weapon, obviously and imminently dangerous to life. His attorney now comes forward asking for a new trial, stating in the petition that the former verdict was not in accordance with the evidence submitted.
